Call for Special Sessions, Workshops, and Tutorials

Prospective organizers of Special sessions, Workshops or Tutorials are invited to submit, before the corresponding deadline, a proposal according to the instructions provided in this document. Before continuing, please keep in mind the different categories:

- Special sessions focus on very specific topics and applications of interest related to the technical areas mentioned in the call for papers. All papers for a special session must follow the same peer-review process as regular papers.
- Workshops are a period of discussion or practical work on a particular subject in which a group of people shares their knowledge or experience. This may include software demonstrations and experiments. The chairman organizing the workshop is responsible for all the presentations scheduled for it.
- Tutorials are intensive educational talks given by one or several speakers on specific topics. The chairman organizing the tutorial is responsible for the presentations included.

After the evaluation of the proposals, the organizers and the speakers of the accepted Special sessions, Workshops and Tutorials are requested to be registered in the conference before May 15th, 2019.
